

Hawera High School Home Lunch Pass Application

Please read this document carefully and fill in those areas which apply.

1. This consent form is only for students who leave the school grounds for lunch at a residential address on a regular basis (usually daily or 3 to 4 times a week). It does not give permission for students to go to town.
2. Non regular absence from school at lunch time must be covered by a written signed note to the form teacher on the day.
3. If you wish your child to go to a home which is not where they live then this form must include a signed consent from that person. (see below)
4. Both sections of this form need to be completed if your child goes between the two places for lunch.
